TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be we'l to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES McCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, October 22d, 1873.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina have been abundantly blessed during the past year, and the earth hath yielded bountifully of all the products of its soil so that the garners of the husbandman are filled to overflowing; and the industrious mechanic has realized a rich reward for his labor, and every class of our population prospered in all laudable enterprises; and WHEREAS, above all, fraternal feelings and good will have in a great measure been restored in our midst, and no plague, pestilence or famine has visited our State: Now, therefore, it becomes us, a grateful people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showered upon us in His great mercy, I, Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint and set apart

Thursday, November 27th, 1873,

as a day of public Thanksgiving throughout the State; and I do earnestly invite the clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship on said day, and to exhort their congregations to humble themselves before the throne of the ever living God, and render unto Him praises which are justly due, invoking for themselves, their State and their whole country His guidance and protection throughout all time to come.

"O come, let us sing unto the Lord, let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation."

"Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms."

A PROCLAMATION,

By the President of the United States of America.

The approaching close of another year brings with it the occasion for renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgment to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for the unnumbered mercies which He has bestowed upon us.

Abundant harvests have been among the rewards of industry. With local exceptions health has been among the many blessings enjoyed. Tranquility at home and peace with other nations have prevailed. Frugal industry is regaining its merited recognition and its merited rewards.

Gradually, but, under the providence of God, surely, as we trust, the nation is recovering from the lingering results of a dreadful civil strife.

For these and all the other mercies vouchsafed, it becomes us as a people to return heartfelt and grateful acknowledgments, and with our thanksgiving for blessings we may unite prayers for the cessation of local and temporary sufferings.

I, therefore, recommend that on Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship, to make their acknowledgments to Almighty God for His bounties and His protection, and to offer to Him prayers for their continuance.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 14th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and [L.S.] of the independence of the United States the ninety-seventh.

U. S. GRANT.

By the President:
HAMILTON FISH,
Secretary of State.

Cuba.

The agitation of the public mind on the subject of the Virginius outrage, is greater than upon any similar occasion that ever occureed in which this country was connected. Even the firing upon the Chesapeake by the British ship of war, Leopard, and impressment of four seamen from her, was trifling in its effect upon the public, compared to the massacre of the Virginius prisoners. The press is loud and earnest in calling for justice upon the inhuman butchers who wear the uniform and carry the flag of Spain.

Their indefensible violation of national rights is sharpened by the recollection of another offence by the Cuban officials against the United States. The long and cruel imprisonment of Doctor Houard, an American citizen, in Havana, and his release just about the time Spain was declared a Republic, was condemned by the United States, on the ground of a desire of not placing obstacles in the way of the new Republic. It was considered that at that time Spain had enough difficulties to contend with; and we generously forgave what, under ordinary circumstances, would have been a peremptory demand for justice to an unoffending but injured man.

This outrageous insult and injury will be atoned in the amplest manner. An inert administration could not overlook the danger it would encounter in closing its ears to the demands of the country. The President has never yet shown himself derelict or indifferent to the honor of our country; and as the subject involves such tremendous considerations in regard to the future of the island of Cuba, it is well that Congress should direct and assist in whatever shall be done.

It is fortunate that the Executive is in a condition to enforce the judgment of Congress. Our navy is in excellent condition, and in sixty days a quarter of a million of trained soldiers could pass over to Cuba. But we do not anticipate much resistance to the demands of the United States by Spain. Even now the villains who wrought this atrocious deed are awaiting in an agony of apprehension the next act in this tragedy. Although the President of Spain may disavow the murder, and promise a delivery of the ruffians who accomplished it, it is doubtful if he can pass them over to the United States. Then we will have to take them ourselves, and take security against a repetition of them. To do this we will take Cuba. The ease with which this can be done can be estimated, when we consider the large element of opposition already arrayed in the island against the powers that be.

A large amount of machinery is being sent to the copper mines in Ashe county.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— The Cuban massacre continues to excite the country. The additional murders tend to add fuel to the flame that is now at fever heat. The Diario of Cenfuegos says fifty seven of the Virginius captives were shot at Santiago on the 10th inst. No particulars of these additional executions have yet been made public there. Dispatches from Havanna state that the trials of all the prisoners taken on board the Virginius have been concluded. Only eighteen will be saved from death. Of these several are engineers or firemen: who were ignorant of the destinations of the expedition, and four or five will be set at liberty. The others will probably be condemed to the chain gang.

— The Baltimore American has a long article on the Cuban questiom, from which we extract the following:—The army men, who have seen service, retired officers especially, were eager for an opportunity to punish the arrogance and savage ferocity of the Spanish volunteers, to whose influence they attribute the late barbarous outrages. They are all confident to a man that both General Grant and Sherman are just as indignant at the conduct of the commandant at Santiago and as desirous to visit it with the proper punishment as are any of the people. One of them, who was supposed to be in a position to know, very emphatically affirmed that the President and the General of the army were on the right track, and that their opinions would soon be developed, when the reasonable public would be entirely satisfied.

— The New York Times' Washinging dispatches contain the following: There was a very long Cabinet meeting to-day. The Virginius affair was under discussion, but what was said or done was kept a profound secret. Mr. Fish promises to give all the official information the Department contains in regard to the occurrences of the press. That there is a vigorous and important correspondence going on with Madrid and other capitals may be positively stated. The loud calls to immediate war made by some of the newspapers are the utterances of writers who do not know that this is a constitutional Government, and that the President cannot declare war, nor commit an act of war, without the special sanction and authority of Congress. Members of the Cabinet are not in the habit of giving information in regard to the proceedings of other Departments than their own; and while they all express their personal feelings with much warmth in regard to this affair, they are very careful not to give any information as to official matters. Beyond a dispatch from Mr. Hall, at Havana, to-day, the substance of which has been given to the Associated Press, there has been no news received by the State Department. Mr. Fish is convinced by this dispatch that the shooting of the Virginius captives was a deliberately planned murder on the part of the Spanish volunteers, who purposely arranged to prevent the possibility of Governmental interference before their designs were consumated.

Criminal Associations – Handcuffs.

A prudent clergyman, unwilling to accuse a citizen of lying, said he used the truth with penurious frugality.

Modern mechanical inventions, are so rapidly superseding the old-fashioned implements, the scythe, that Time ought in future to be represented with a mowing-machine.

The proverb, "Never put off till tomorrow what you can do to-day," is beautifully and tastily exemplified by the school-boy who polishes off his birthday cake on the day of receipt.

Mother. "Now, Jean, when the folks come to tea, mind ye divert them as muckle as ye can. And, Jean, when the cakes and sic-like things are han'ed round, be mannerly, and set the example by just saying, "No, thankye," to it all.

A Telegraph operator last month summoned a doctor thus: "Come at once to see procession of Carlo Spencer's menagerie." The message, when "repeated," read: "Come at once with prescription—case of cerebro-spinal meningitis."

Ethel. "Were you not pleased to have such a pretty partner as Miss Myrtle at croquet yesterday, Charlie?"

Charlie. "Well—er—personally, I dislike beauty. Acknowledged belles have a way of making a fellow feel himself of secondary consideration sometimes, don't you know?"

Rules for Railway Traveling.—First make your will. Order your coffin to be sent home on the following day, and issue invitations to your funeral. Insure your life in as many different companies, and to as large amount as possible. Take no luggage; you will not require any in the place to which you are going. Bid farewell to your family, say your prayers, and meet your fate like a true American.

The Commissioners of Beaufort county have postponed the election in regard to the Jamesville railroad until some time in January.

The Supreme Court of North Carolina will meet in Raleigh on the first monday in January. Cases from this district will be heard on the second week of the Court.

The News says the case of Swazey et al., vs. the N. C. R. R., involving the question as to whether or not the State shall sell a sufficiency of its interest in that road to meet the accrued interest on its bonds, will be heard before Judge Bond at the coming term of the U. S. Circuit Court at Raleigh. Able counsel appear on both sides.

Says the Salisbury Watchman of the 15th instant: "We learn from Dr. J. W. Jones that another Indian burying ing ground has been discovered, on this side of the Yadkin river, near the old Trading ford. The Doctor informs us that he found one grave whose occupant measured 6 feet and 7 inches from crown to heel. In this grave was found a tomahawk, made of horne blende stone, and weighing seven or eight pounds. The Doctor also observed that of sixteen skulls examined not one had lost a tooth or had one decayed. The bones are very lightly covered in the sand, but as soon as they are exposed to the air crumble to pieces.

OTTO SCHUTZE,
Observer, U. S. A.

No Mayor's court this morning.

EFFECTS of panic tremendous: Tumble in prices at

S. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,
15 Market st.

BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—The officers and visitors of the Ladies Benevolent Society, and those willing to take part in the work of visiting, will please meet on Tuesday next, at half past 3 o'clock in the Masonic Hall. All should be present, as the wards are to be arranged for the year. Any wishing to subscribe will find it convenient to be there also, and the subscribers should be fourfold.

nov 17-2t

WE call attention to the advertisement of Mr. John H. Allan, in another column. In a recent issue of the Atlanta papers, Mr. Allan was commended to the citizens of Wilmington as a good workman and a clever gentleman, but he was too well known in Wilmington to need any introduction from that paper; it only goes to show in what light he was held in his adopted home. Read his advertisement and go see him.

OWING to the late panic we will sell until January 1st, our entire stock at 25 per cent. less than New York cost.

S. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,
tf 15 Market st.

BRITISH BARQUE GARSTRANG.—The British Barque Garstrang, Thornton, from Liverpool, struck on the Western bar Saturday. The steam tug Brandt, went to her assistance, and while in the act of pulling her off the hawser became tangled around the propeller of the Brandt and disabled her. The Government steamer, Winants, went to their assistance and towed them both up the river before they sustained any damages.

CLOTHING is down, money being scarce, we are offering our entire stock of clothing, boots and shoes at suspension prices.

S. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17, 1873.

OUR COMING WAR WITH SPAIN—Gentlemen: Anticipating early trouble in Spain, and having a vast number of men to supply with winter clothing, we instructed our State agent to find out where the cheapest and best clothing could be found, there being so many in your city who claim to sell at cost. We having to-day received a telegram stating that your house could do better for us than any other, you will please accept his orders and oblige.

Yours, &c.,

RIP VAN WINKLE, President.
By Maxamilin Dobin, Private Sec'y.

To Messrs. David & Weil,
No. 27 Market Street.

Facts will tell, and it is a positive fact that David & Weil are selling more clothing than all the other houses together, because they are really selling at prime cost. tf

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.

— Gold is 109⅜.

— Let us annex Cuba!

— Many people at church yesterday.

— Miss Bradley's school is not yet opened.

— Thanksgiving one week from next Thursday.

— D. A. Smith has a splendid assortment of carpets.

— Legislature meets to-day. Now lookout for "highfalutin."

— "Old Probs" missed it yesterday, but it rained before morning,

— Bring on your cotton and naval stores. We want some right now.

— Subscribe for the POST. This is good and (as it were) disinterested advice.

The Cape Fear Agricultural Association intend to have a big show this year.

— The Tremains will return in a few weeks to sing again to enliven us. They are welcome.

— B. Weill has some remarkably fine goods which he offiers at low rates.—Examine them.

— Dogs are as plentiful as the leaves on the trees, but, unfortunately, they do not fall as often.

— Springer sells coal. He is a good man to deal with, and he loves to sell coal. Please him by buying some.

— The wind was high last night, and the rattling shutters and windows led one to draw very close to the fire side.

S. HANSTEIN & Co., New York House, 15 Market St., are now commencing to sell their entire stock of dry goods at less than cost.

PARCHED chestnut stands, kept by genuine Italians, a little female Italian violin player who goes from door to door playing her violin and asking "a penny, if you please, sir;" a shooting gallery; the flying ponies, a manufactory of and inflation of little red balloons, a blind man who walks our streets with a placard on his breast having on it "please help the blind" and a band of Italian harpers can now be seen in our city. Oh! we forgot to mention the pick-pockets and sneak-thieves.

MORE BRUTAL TREATMENT.—A Water street nymph du pave, answering to the euphonious names of Violet Henry and Black Runner, was arrested and lodged in the guard house yesterday for brutally whipping her child. Upon investigation, it was found that the child was about three years old, was paralyzed, and that it had been whipped most brutully with pieces of tin switches and a clothes line by its unfeeling and unnatural mother for some petty offense which was not in the power of the maimed child to prevent. Persons who have seen the child state that its body is dreadfully bruised, and that the lower portion is lacerating and bleeding badly. The case not properly coming under the jurisdiction of the Mayor's court, the woman was subsequently released unpunished.

SAW MILLS.—We stated a few days ago that the various saw mills in and about our city had suspended work; we had heard it rumored about the streets for more than a week, but before publishing it we took the trouble to enquire of one of the mill owners, if the report was true. He informed us that their mill had been shut down for some days, as they had as much resawed lumber on hand as they desired, and did not care to ship, only on order. There were one or two vessels lying at their mill wharf loading, all of last week, but the mill was not going as there was an abundance of resawed on hand to load them.

As to the other mills in the city, we received our information directly from mill men, with the exception of James H. Chadbourn & Co., and had no reason to doubt the statements, coming as they did from reliable men in the milling business.

The planing mills, which are not saw mills, have been running very constantly, but even some of them have been shut down part of the time, as we are informed and believe. We never publish rumors as facts, but invariably go to the proper head quarters for our information, even if we lose the item by so doing.

We regret that our article should have offended mill men so seriously, but it was written in good faith, and as an item of news received from one of the mill owners who vouched for its correctness. No one at all familliar with saw milling supposes that a temporary shut down amounts to a suspension of business, and we think the shortning of sails in squally times is no evidence of weakness, but of sound financial ability.

Saturday Night Sketches.

It is astonishing how soon the Saturday nights return. The week has flown on speedy wings, and as we take our pilgrim staff to wander forth upon our weekly round, we glance at the gorgeous piles of sunset clouds and wonder if the other night scenes were as grand. The balmy air has tempted many from the quiet of their homes, and the walks are literally jammed. The array of carts is materially lessened, as the season of fruits is gone, and early in the night that portion of the street devoted to boisterous traffic and noisy jest, assumes a more orderly appearance. The old "aunties" in the market-house, by dint of severe exertion, keep up a show of variety, but the little measures of diminutive tomatoes offer no attraction to the fastidious, though the piles of artichokes attract those who, upon hospitable thoughts intent, remember the white crisp pickles so welcome to their guests, and the supply soon fails. The butchers glide their "steels" over their knives as only butchers can, and the deer heads upon the meat racks bear unmistakable evidence of the prowess of our local hunters and the productiveness of our wilds. The stringency of the times compel every one to "buy close," and marketmen understand this as well as the rest of us, so that "inside prices" are asked for choice cuts upon the first demand, and the sale of meats is lively. There are many in the city to-night who have none of the wherewith to purchase fresh meats, and the number will undoubtedly grow greater ere the spring smiles upon us. The cold wind will force its way into the crevices of many a cabin, where hunger will be the daily experience as the winter grows old, and the cry of suffering will come up from the distressed. In our own trials, let us not forget the harder ones of our brethren.

We are moralizing and prophesying all in one sentence, and we do not intend to do either. But the piles of meat look so tempting, and the wind comes up from the river occasionally with a cold blast, reminding one of winter's sorrows, and we are sad because there are so many to-night who have no hope for a nice piece of beef for the morrow. It is very comforting to have money on market nights—very.

At the grocery stores, we find the regular weekly settlements going on, the same little black bottles going to be filled, the inevitable lover of the weed indulging in his weekly Havanna, and the barrels of delicious apples dwindling with the night hours, and all is bustle and haste. Out in the quiet night, breathing the pure air, in the darkness, we hear the distant din and rejoice that the labor of the week is ended. The solitary passers hasten by with baskets and bundles, the beladed fish cart rattles into prominence and squeaks into obscurity; the hum gradually lessons and we seek the fireside we know is bright and cherful to await our coming. We hastily write the brief sketches of the little nothings we have seen, take a glance at the curly head nestling on a pillow near at hand, his chubby hands beneath his satin check, and thank the good Father for the health and strength of our loved ones. Hastily comes the midnight hour, and the bangs of the watchful police who knock at the doors of the saloons that they may instantly close. What is a Saturday night without saloons? Nothing. So the saloon shutters close out the lights, and Saturday night is gone.

Frank Young, charged with assault and battery, case continued until to-morrow.

Mary Richardson, charged with assault, case continued until to-morrow.

A couple of little colored boys were arrested and lodged in the guard house for breaking one of the large panes of glass to the dry goods store of Mr. S. Levy. Quite a number of large buckshot were found in the pockets of the boys. We have often expatiated upon the dangers arising from using these sling shots, and hope that the boys will be dealt with severely in order to frighten others who habitually use such dangerous playthings.

The Weldon News tells of a noble party of hunters near there who, not being successful in bagging anything else, amused themselves at firing at a billy-goat, who withstood many rounds of ball cartridge and at lass succumbed to buck shot.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH,

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 17.

Mr. Beecher, in his sermon yesterday, made a strong appeal for free Cuba. He denounced the executions as a crime against humanity and civilization, and simply ferocious, but advises the Government to act thoughtfully.

Hugh McCulloch, of Jay Cooke, McCulloch & Co., of London, sailed for England on Saturday. The present house will be dissolved at the end of the year, when Mr. McCulloch and his English juniors will continue business under a new and strong combination.

Samuel Adams, organist of the South Fifth Street Methodist Church, Brooklyn, dropped dead while playing the organ during last evening's services.

MASSACHUSETTS.

LAWRENCE, November 17.

The Washburn block at Haverhill has been burned. Thirty-five business firms and eight hundred hands were ousted. Loss $175,000. Three persons perished in the flames.

COHOES, November 17.

The mills in this city did not resume operations this morning, as was expected. The ruinous rates at which goods are now being offered, makes it impossible to produce them except at a sacrifice which would certainly lead to bankruptcies. No change is looked for until there is a decided improvement in the market.

PENNSYLVANIA.

HARRISBURG, November 17.

One of the negroes who murdered a farmer near Middletown, has been arrested.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.

At a large meeting of working people, male and female, it was stated that forty thousand people were unemployed.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, November 17.

Official confirmation was received to-night, by the government, of the execution of 57 more of the Virginius prisoners on the 12th inst., of whom 17 were British subjects. The British legation is in receipt of same intelligence.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 17.

True Blue has been permanently disabled as a racer. It is believed that the horse got his foot in a gopher hole.

CABLE DISPATCHES.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, November 17.

The Times in a leading editorial, says: if the Virginius affair had occured during the ascendancy of the democratic party Cuba would doubtless have been immediately annexed. It draws a contrast between the conduct of the Spaniards in Cuba, and the lenient treatment by the American government of foreign blockade running during the rebellion. If England is called upon to act in consequence of the execution of any of her own subjects, there is no reason why she should not acknowledge the independence of Cuba, especially if the act would check such outrages. It recommends the adoption of that line of policy by the United States.

The daily Telegraph contains an article similar in tone to that of the Times. Both the journals concur in the opinion that Spain is powerless to enforce reparation, and that the United States may possibly be compelled to intervene, even though reintant to do so.

An old man named Eaton Phillips, in Edgecombe, while under the influence of liquor, fell from his ox cart last Wednesday night during the very cold spell, and was found next morning frozen to death.

It is said that the Penitentiary will be in need of funds in a very few days and the impending "Injunction" will be very seriously felt in that quarter. The other State Institutions are not so badly off, and can get along for awhile on the resources they have on hand.

The Fayetteville Observer of the 15th inst., in speaking of the Cumberland Fair, says: The fair in point of exhibition, is the highest success. We do not hesitate to say, (and we are supported in opinion by many who have attended both) that Farmers Hall and Food and (Confident Hall) surpass the same departments at the State Fair. In Floral Hall we have had in previous years larger exhibitions, but none more attractive. The articles are very beautiful. In Manufactures and Mechanics the showing is good. In Live Stock the animals are fine, and the entries of about average number. The poultry is numerous and very good. Up to last evening there were nearly 1,000 entries and many more are to come in to-day.
